SECTION 1 – MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1 The Society shall consist of honorary life members, individual members, institutional members, associate institutional members and sustaining members.
 - 1.1.1 Honorary life membership shall be accorded by a majority vote of the membership to persons who are distinguished for their archives work or who have rendered distinguished service to the Society, or are otherwise deemed worthy of the honour. Each proposal to enrol a person as an honorary life member shall be submitted on recommendation of the Board of Directors to the Annual General Meeting for the approval of the membership. Honorary life members have the right to vote and hold office in the Society and shall not be required to pay membership dues.
 - 1.1.2 Individual membership shall be accorded to any person who supports the objectives of the Society, and who is engaged in archival work and who has paid the annual membership fee of the Society. Individual members in good standing have the right to vote and to hold office in the Society. Individual membership is offered at a reduced rate to the following persons: Students (registered full-time in a post-secondary institution); Seniors (aged 65 or older); Archives Volunteers and Supporters (who support archives and archival work but are not directly employed in archives).
 - 1.1.3 Institutional membership shall be accorded to those institutions that are engaged in the identification, preservation and the use of archival records. Institutions applying for membership shall: submit a written operational mandate, officially approved by their parent bodies; have an ongoing commitment of financial support from the parent body to provide both staff and physical facilities; be accessible to the public, either with opening hours or by appointment; have an access policy consistent with the purpose of its parent body and operating procedures consistent with generally recognized archival practices. Applications for institutional membership shall be approved by the Board of Directors and shall be valid for five years, subject to review for compliance with the definition of institutional membership. An institutional member in good standing shall designate only one representative to vote and to be eligible to hold office in the Society.
 - 1.1.4 Associate institutional membership is accorded to those institutions that support the aims and objectives of the Society, have paid the annual membership dues of the Society, but do not qualify for Institutional membership. Associate Institutional members are not eligible for grant funding under this category. An Associate Institutional member in good standing shall designate only one person to vote and to be eligible to serve on Society committees.
 - 1.1.5 Sustaining membership is open to any individual or institution who wishes to support the goals and objectives of the ASA by paying more than the set fee established in the Individual, Associate Institutional, and Institutional membership categories. A sustaining member shall have the right to vote and to be eligible to hold office in the Society.
- 1.2 The scale and amount of membership dues shall be determined, from time to time, by the Board of Directors of the Society. Annual membership dues shall be paid yearly in advance.

- 1.3 Membership years shall be the same period as the Society's fiscal year.
- 1.4 The Society's Secretariat or delegate shall notify the members of the dues or the fees at any time payable by them and if they are not paid within ninety days of the date of such notice, the members in default shall therefore automatically cease to be members of the Society, but any such members may, on payment of all unpaid dues or fees, be reinstated.
- 1.5 Members may resign by submitting a resignation in writing. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt thereof by the Board of Directors. In case of resignation, a member shall remain liable for payment of any assessment or other sum levied or which becomes payable by him to the Society prior to the receipt by the Board of Directors of his resignation. No portion of any prepaid membership fee shall be refunded to the member resigning.
- 1.6 The Board of Directors shall have the power by a majority vote of the whole, which may be by letter ballot, to remove from the membership roll the name of any member who, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, is no longer worthy of being connected with the Society, and such person or institution shall cease to be connected in any way with the Society, but the Board of Directors shall give any such person the right to appear before the Board and be heard.
 - 1.6.1 In any case in which it is proposed to expel a member of the Board, that member of the Board who it is proposed to expel may not cast a vote for or against his own expulsion.
 - 1.6.2 If a majority of the whole Board has voted for the expulsion of a member, the membership must confirm this decision at the next meeting of the Society and shall first give to any such member the right to appear before the Society and be heard. In any case in which it is proposed to expel a member, that member who it is proposed to expel may not cast a vote for or against removal.

SECTION 2 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS
